

CADET SQUADRON CADET DUTY POSITIONS

Cadet Squadron Commander (SQ/CC): Commands Basic Cadet Training squadron comprised of flights similar to an Academic Year (AY) squadron consisting of Basic Cadets and associated flight cadre.

Cadet Squadron Director of Operations (SQ/DO): Second-in-command and primary advisor to the SQ/CC. Responsible for day-to-day operations of the squadron and coordinates with the flight commanders.

Cadet Operations Squadron Staff: Responsible for executing Squadron Commander's direction and established policies and directives.

Cadet Superintendent: Squadron Superintendents provide leadership and management in organizing, equipping and training towards accomplishment of group and squadron missions.

Cadet First Sergeant: First Sergeants provide sound advice to commanders on a wide range of topics including discipline, morale, health, welfare, mentoring and professional development of squadron.

Cadet Operations NCOs: Reports to and is responsible to Director of Operations. Maintains and processes all necessary forms in a timely manner.

Cadet Military Guidance Officer/Peer: Serves as a Peak Performance Center (PPC) trained squadron consultant, able to assist Basic Cadets on personal adjustment, acclimation and adaption to the military training environment.

Cadet Squadron Medical Officer (SMO): Responsible for ensuring Basic Cadets receive appropriate medical care and that squadron personnel use appropriate Risk Management.

Cadet Flight Commander: Responsible for the management, training, and proficiency of assigned flight personnel as well as the morale, welfare and evaluation of Basic Cadets under his/her supervision.

Cadet Assistant Flight Commander: Assists Flight/CC and assumes responsibilities in his/her absence.

Cadet Element Leaders: Reports to and is responsible to Flight Commander. Responsible for the morale, welfare, training and proficiency of all assigned Basic Cadets.