Ladies and Gentlemen

As we all continue to navigate through these uncertain times, we know each and every one of you has been affected by COVID-19 in some way. With school closures and quarantines, life looks very different right now for people all over the world. I also know this uncertainty may have you wondering about your future at the Air Force Academy.

High school seniors, we understand you are facing unique challenges no other class has had to deal with, and we are adjusting for that. I wanted to reassure you we are continuing to build the Class of 2024. If additional information is being requested from you, please do the best you can to submit the required information. If you're unable to because of the current situation, please let us know. We know there are some things out of your control and we will do the best we can under these circumstances.

For those who have been offered appointments, congratulations. We are excited to see you soon. We may not be able to host you for appointee tours, but we have added several webinars to answer all your questions. Continue to work on your Appointee Kits, prepare for Basic Cadet Training and do not hesitate to reach out to your admissions counselor if you need help with any part of the admissions process. Given the uncertainties with COVID-19, in-processing may be delayed, but it will happen. Remember if you have an appointment, you will be a member of the U.S. Air Force Academy Class of 2024.

For the Class of 2025 hopefuls, we know you face challenges finishing your junior year. Every school district is taking a different approach to making sure you finish on track. Some of you may end up with pass/fail grades for this term, or your standardized testing may be delayed. We understand and will take this into consideration as you move through the application process. Try not to let these challenges get you down or discourage you. Continue to work as hard as ever on your application and finish strong.

Keep an eye out for more information as this situation continues. Continue to monitor academyadmissions.com and your portal. You may be facing uncertainty at home, school and work, and you're definitely experiencing interruptions in your day-to-day lives, but please know the work we are doing for the Classes of 2024 and 2025 hasn't stopped. We are here for you.

Be safe, stay healthy and take care of yourselves, your family and your friends.

Sincerely
