DEFINING OUR FUTURE

The history of the U.S. Air Force Academy is full of defining moments- for cadets, for graduates, for the Air Force, for the country. This fall, the Air Force Academy Foundation and Association of Graduates will add a significant defining moment to the list!

AIR FORCE ACADEMY FOUNDATION

The Air Force Academy Foundation (formerly the USAFA Endowment) was established in 2007 as an IRS-designated 501(c)(3) independent, public charitable foundation.

Mission: to align donor passion and generosity to serve and support the Air Force Academy.

More than $260 million in gifts committed to support and enhance every aspect of cadet life at the Academy: character development, athletic competition, academic discovery and military education.

USAFA PRIORITIES

The Air Force Academy Foundation and the Association of Graduates have a vision to comprehensively support the Air Force Academy as it prepares cadets for all that they will face in defense of our nation's future.

Four Key areas critical to the success of future Air and Space Force leaders:

- Ensure 21st Century Dominance
- Expand Strategic Advantages
- Build Strength and Agility
- Serve with Honor

21st CENTURY DOMINANCE- INSTITUTE FOR FUTURE CONFLICT

The Institute will focus on emerging technologies, quantum sensing and computing, directed energy, augmented intelligence, hypersonics, and cyber with a goal of educating future Air Force leaders who can implement these new, cutting-edge technologies strategically in the Air Force.

BUILD STRENGTH AND AGILITY

Modern facilities play an important role in the leadership development environment at the heart of the Air Force Academy's athletic mission.

Enable cadets and coaches to experience meaningful growth through hard work, grit and determination.
